

I would like to protest the short time-frame for public comment that has been allotted to this major issue. Furthermore, I believe that the media corporations should have limited ownership. In order to maintain a healthy balance of both large and smaller local companies, the industry should continue to be regulated.